

Dear colleagues!

Please be advised that in connection with the high-alert regime introduced in Moscow, due to the unfavorable epidemiological situation, “Institute of World Civilizations” (IMC, a non-governmental autonomous non-profit organization of higher education) is forced to cancel the in-person holding of the X international scientific-practical conference on April 16-17, 2020 on the topic: «Russia and the world: the development of civilizations. Lessons from the past, threats to the future».

At the same time, the Program and Organizational Committees of the conference consider it advisable not to violate the established practice of the annual exchange of research results on problems of civilizational development. In this regard, we propose to take part in the conference in absentia by submitting your reports in the form of articles, which we will gladly publish in a special publication of the IMC. Texts prepared for publication must be submitted before 04/05/2020 to the address: izdimc@mail.ru in accordance with the Requirements. You can learn more information on the preparation of publications by telephone from the member of the Organizing Committee, Alexander Alexandrovich Radyuk: + 7-495-632-17-60, as well as from section moderators, the details of which are attached.

Detailed information on absentee participation in the conference is available from section moderators.

Contact person of the Scientific Council of the IMC: Vice-Rector for Scientific Work Kozlov Sergey Dmitrievich + 7-929-165-88-61.
